

The narrators with whom Al-Bukhari agreed in his book "Al-Daf Al-Sagheer" and Al-Nasa'i in his book "Al-Dha'fa and Al-Matroukeen" in translating to them and the extent of their agreement and disagreement. In the degree of the narrator and its impact on the degree of the narrator

.Taghreed Abdel-Fattah El-Sayed Mohamed Hassan Selim

Department of Hadith and its Sciences – College of Islamic and Arabic Studies
.- Zagazig Girls – Al-Azhar University – Egypt

E-mail: tagreed_sleeem@azhar.edu.eg

The research aims to determine the conditions and degrees of wounding according to Al-Bukhari and Muslim, and to study the narrators whom Al-Bukhari agreed with in his book Al-Dafa' Al-Sagheer and Al-Nasa'i in his book. The book Al-Dafa and Al-Matroukeen in translation to them, and the extent of their agreement and disagreement in the formulation of the wound .and the rank of the narrator, and its impact on the degree of the narrator

Keywords: Al-Bukhari – An-Nasa'i – AL-sagheir aldaa'eef – the abandoned – the pronunciation of the wound – the rank of the narrator – the degree of the .narrator